

Supports for Workers Coal Workforce Transition Program: Bridge to Retirement Application Guidelines

It is important that you carefully review this document when completing your application.

Bridge to Retirement will support workers transitioning into retirement. It will provide a relief grant of 75 per cent of a worker's previous weekly earnings (earned when employed at the affected coal-fired power plant or mine), up to 72 weeks, or receipt of pension, or when employment income is greater than the relief payment, whichever is shorter.

In-person submission of this application is mandatory.

Please call the Alberta Supports Contact Centre at 1-877-644-9992 (hours: 7:30 am to 8:00 pm) for more information or to make an appointment at one of the following Alberta Supports Centres to submit your application. Your appointment will be scheduled within 1 to 3 business days:

<h3>Severance Pay</h3>

Eligibility Criteria	Guidelines
If you receive severance pay, it will delay and reduce the duration of the relief grant, or end the relief grant.	Your severance pay amount will be treated like normal employment earnings. Severance pay will be allocated based on your previous weekly earnings. This means that your severance payments are treated as if the same amount of money was paid to you for each of the weeks from your layoff date, until that money is effectively used up. Once your severance pay is exhausted, relief payments can begin. For example: If you receive severance pay for 12 weeks (either in a lump sum payment or over a 12 week period equivalent to previous earnings) your relief grant will begin on the 13th week. The duration of your relief grant will not be extended. Any severance pay received must be reported. Application rules still apply and you must apply within the three months from the layoff date to be eligible for this relief grant.
Amount of relief grant
If eligible, you will receive a relief grant of 75 per cent of previous weekly earnings. The relief grant amount is provided based on your earnings (base salary) from employment with the specified coal power plant or mine.	The relief grant will be the same amount that is not impacted by other sources of income or earnings, up to the amount of the relief grant. If earnings exceed the relief grant amount, the relief grant will end. Relief grant payments received through this program are taxable.
