Public information and warning: Sexual Offender Released

In the interest of public safety, the Edmonton Police Service is issuing the following warning; Andrew CARRIGAN is a convicted sexual offender and the Edmonton Police Service has reasonable grounds to believe he will commit another sexual offence against someone under the age of 16 while in the community.

CARRIGAN will be residing in the Edmonton area. The Edmonton Police Service has obtained a recognizance order on CARRIGAN and he will be closely monitored by the Behavioural Assessment Unit of the Edmonton Police Service.

CARRIGAN has been placed on a series of court ordered conditions including:

- Must abide by a curfew of 12 AM to 5 AM daily
- Must not purchase, possess or consume alcohol or drugs, including marijuana
- Must not acquire, possess or access pornography or sexually explicit material in any form or on any type of media.
- Must not access the internet unless supervised by an approved adult.
- Must not be within 150 meters around places where children under the age of 16 are likely to congregate, i.e. elementary schools, daycare centres, parks, swimming pools, recreational centres or children's retail stores.
- Must not be in the presence of any children under the age 16 unless accompanied by an approved adult aware of his criminal history.

Anyone with any information about any potential breaches of these conditions by CARRIGAN can contact the EPS at 780-423-4567.

The Edmonton Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform the members of the community.
