Public information and warning: Violent Offender Released

In the interest of public safety, the Edmonton Police Service is issuing the following warning: Edward CURRIE is a convicted violent offender, including violence within intimate relationships, and the Edmonton Police Service has reasonable grounds to believe he will commit another violent offence against someone while in the community.

CURRIE will be residing in the Edmonton area. The Edmonton Police Service is seeking a recognizance order on CURRIE and he will be closely monitored by the Behavioral Assessment Unit of the Edmonton Police Service.

CURRIE has been placed on a series of court ordered conditions including:

- Must abide by a curfew of 10 PM to 6 AM daily.
- Must abstain from the purchase, possession or consumption of alcohol and drugs, including marijuana.
- Must not be found in any tavern, bar, lounge, nightclub or any establishment where the primary focus is the consumption or sale of alcohol.
- Must not leave the City of Edmonton without prior approval from his supervisor.
- Must not enter into a dating, intimate, sexual relationship with any person or any friendships with females without disclosure to his supervisor.

Anyone with any information about any potential breaches of these conditions by CURRIE can contact the EPS at 780-423-4567.

The Edmonton Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform the members of the community.
