Red Deer, Alberta
RCMP Red Deer City WARN PUBLIC OF HIGH RISK Child Sex Offender

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police are issuing the following public information and warning in regard to the release of a Provincial inmate, in the interest of public safety.

James Daryle HILL was released from custody on October 13, 2010, after completing a four (4) month sentence for committing an Indecent Act. James HILL has a lengthy criminal history of committing sexual offences against young females within the Province of Alberta. This individual represents a significant risk to sexually offend against young females and poses a considerable threat in the community.

James HILL is a 54 year old Caucasian male, 167 CM (5'5") and 66 KG (145 lbs) with brown eyes and brown hair. James HILL will be residing within the community of Red Deer, Alberta. He is bound by a 2 year Probation Order and must abide by a Section 161 CC Order which lists several conditions to address community concerns.

Specifically, these are:

- Not to attend any public park or public swimming area where persons under the age of fourteen (14) years are present or can reasonably be expected to be present, or day care center, school ground, playground or community center.
- Not to seek, obtain or continue employment, whether or not the employment is remunerated, or become a volunteer in a capacity that involves being in a position of trust or authority towards persons under the age of fourteen (14) years.
- Using a computer system within the meaning of subsection 342.1(2) for the purpose of communicating with a person under the age of fourteen years.

The RCMP are issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation and consideration of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform the members of the community of the return of James HILL to this area.

Members of the public are advised that the intent of the process is to enable members of the public to take suitable precautionary measures and NOT to embark on any form of vigilante action.
