Public information and warning: Violent Offender Released

In the interest of public safety, the Edmonton Police Service is issuing the following warning; Jared SOOSAY is a convicted violent offender and sexual offender, and the Edmonton Police Service has reasonable grounds to believe he will commit another violent offence against someone while in the community.

SOOSAY will be residing in the Edmonton area. The Edmonton Police Service is seeking a court order on SOOSAY and he will be monitored by the Behavioural Assessment Unit of the Edmonton Police Service.

SOOSAY's risk of offending behavior increases significantly if under the influence of intoxicants. He has been known to use weapons during the commission of his offences. SOOSAY also has a history of intimate partner violence, including sexual violence.

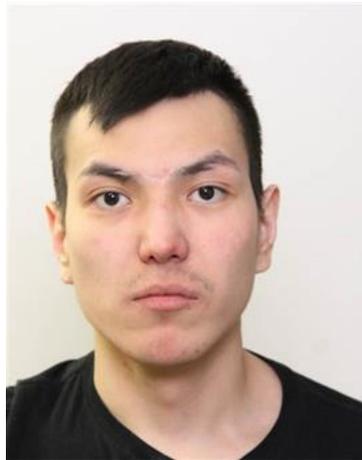

SOOSAY has been placed on a series of court ordered conditions including:

- He must live at a residence approved by the Provincial Court or his Supervisor and must not change that address until he has received written approval from his Supervisor.
- He must abide by a curfew of 10 PM to 6 AM daily unless a varied time is approved in writing by his supervisor.
- He will not have any guests at his residence during his hours of curfew unless they have been identified and approved by his supervisor.
- He must not purchase, possess or consume any alcoholic beverages. He must not consume or possess any drug listed in the schedule of the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, including any prescription drugs not prescribed to him or any other intoxicating substances, with the exception of cannabis.
- He will not have or allow any other person to have alcohol or cannabis products at his residence.
- He must not possess any drug paraphernalia such as crack or marijuana pipes, self-made pipes of any kind, e-cigarettes, bongs, water pipes, syringes or cigarette papers other than rolling papers for cannabis use.
- He must not be in any licensed premise other than a dining room for the sole purpose of have a meal. Must not attend at any liquor store.
- He must not travel out of the City of Edmonton without written approval of his supervisor or the Provincial Court of Alberta.

- He must immediately report to his Supervisor or designate any motor vehicle he may acquire or have access to including the year, make, model, VIN and license plate number.
- He must not be in possession of weapons of any kind, including knives (except in your residence or at a restaurant for the sole purpose of consuming a meal), bear spray or dog spray, firearms, ammunition, explosive material, or any weapons whether homemade or otherwise.
- He must not enter into a dating, intimate, or sexual relationship with any female or any friendship with a female until her identity has been disclosed to your Supervisor or designate and she has been informed of your previous offending by your Supervisor or designate.

Anyone with any information about any potential breaches of these conditions by SOOSAY can contact the EPS at 780-423-4567.

The Edmonton Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform the members of the community.
