

Licensed Practical Nurse

APS Minimum Recruitment Standards

Subsidiary Agreement:	006
Effective Date:	September 1, 2008
Stream Definition:	This work provides licensed practical nursing services within a defined scope of practice to carry-out patient care focusing on promotion of wellness, maintenance of health, and prevention of illness. The work typically includes monitoring physical and mental health conditions, recording patients' progress, taking vital signs, communicating health findings in collaboration with the physician and other regulated health care professionals, and administering treatment and medications in accordance with the physician's and other regulated health care professionals' orders.

Minimum Recruitment Standards: Licensed Practical Nurse

Licensed Practical Nurse

Minimum Recruitment Standard:

- Graduation from a licensed practical nursing program and a current active or temporary practice permit with the College of Licensed Practical Nurses of Alberta.

Class #:

- 061LP

Last Review / Update: 2014-12-05