Quick Facts for Teachers
Grade 3 Student Learning Assessment (SLA)

Before the administration

Resources used to prepare for the SLA
Depending on your preferences, you can choose to read through the SLA User Guide, or you can view the Quick Tips Videos that explain the following:
• How to access the teacher dashboard
• How to use the teacher dashboard
• Promising practices for SLAs

Please review the SLA Technical Requirements, which outlines the minimum software requirements for the administration of the SLA.

Practice digital interactive questions
Students can try out the practice digital interactive questions and released digital interactive questions that are located on the SLA application.

This will help familiarize your students with the interactivity of the digital questions and provide an opportunity for schools to check whether their computer technology meets the technical requirements for administering the SLA.

Practice performance tasks
Both the literacy and numeracy performance tasks include a short presentation that is projected on a screen. Teacher Administration Guides provide step-by-step guidance through the discussions and activities. We recommend that each performance task be administered during two or more sessions. All of the materials that you need to administer and assess the performance tasks, as well as released performance tasks, are available on the Teacher Dashboard through the SLA application.

Preview of the assessment questions
Teachers can access the teacher preview on or after August 19, 2019 through the SLA application. Assessment questions can be accessed on the “Assessment Preview” page via the left-hand menu of the teacher dashboard.

Accommodations or assistive supports for students
To ensure accessibility, SLAs have been designed to incorporate as many assistive supports as possible. For example, there is an option to change the font on each question. In Numeracy, audio is available for instructions, sources, questions, and alternatives. In Literacy, audio is available for instructions and some sources and questions. Please refer to the General Information Bulletin, located on the SLA web page, for assistive support guidelines.
During the administration

The SLA administration period
The administration window of the digital questions and the performance tasks is September 9 to October 7, 2019. Following the full administration window, teachers can re-administer the SLA components. Participating teachers are encouraged to use the SLA as soon as possible to maximize the value of this beginning-of-the-year assessment.

Administration time to complete the SLA
There is no time limit on any part of the SLA. The following table breaks down the suggested administration time for each part of the SLA.

Teachers may administer select parts of the SLAs. These parts can be administered in several short sessions and on different days.

For information on how to change a student’s status, see the SLA User Guide.

Student log in for the SLA
Students can log into the SLA application and choose “Start Assessment” from the “Assessments” section.

After the administration

Marking of the SLA
The digital interactive questions will be marked by Alberta Education. The performance tasks will be marked locally by teachers. The results of the performance tasks will not be sent to Alberta Education.

Format and availability of the SLA digital reports
The following digital reports will be available within 24 hours of a teacher submitting digital questions for marking via the SLA Teacher Dashboard for teachers and school administrators:

- Class Reports (Digital Questions)
  These reports will contain detailed information, including individual questions, student responses, performance level, the outcome, and the literacy/numeracy assessed by each question.

- Individual Student Reports (Digital Questions)
  These reports will contain detailed information that are parent/guardian-friendly/individual student reports that can be printed and distributed to parents/guardians.

- Sample Reports can be accessed on the SLA web page.
Both the Class Reports and the Individual Student Reports are printable via the SLA Teacher Dashboard. If the SLAs are re-administered to individual students, updated reports will be available via the SLA Teacher Dashboard.

Parents/guardians access of their child’s results
Parents/guardians will be able to access their child’s results via their child’s school. Teachers are expected to discuss students’ individual SLA results with the parents/guardians. Interpretation of results is best accomplished through conversation between the parents/guardians, the student, and the teacher.
