Premier Stelmach comments on Calgary-Glenmore by-election result

Edmonton... Premier Ed Stelmach issued a statement this evening on the results of the Calgary-Glenmore by-election.

“Diane Colley-Urquhart ran a strong and honourable campaign in Calgary-Glenmore. She is a tireless worker for Calgarians and committed to making positive change in her community,” said Premier Stelmach. “I want to thank her for putting her name forward as a candidate, and I regret we won’t be welcoming Diane at the government caucus table. However, I want to assure all residents of Calgary-Glenmore that their issues will continue to be heard, and ably represented by the city’s strong contingent of government MLAs.”
