

Firetack Crew Member

Overview/Description

This course is an introductory wildfire suppression course consisting of a combination of classroom lectures and field labs.

Labs include compass, radio, handline construction, and water delivery.

Successful completion of this course is a requirement for employment on Firetack Wildfire Crews.

Target Audience

Individuals who will be filling a Firetack Crew Member position on a Wildfire Management contract crew in the Province of Alberta.

Prerequisites

- WHMIS
- Online Introduction to ICS I-100.

Registration

Groups can register through your local training contact.