Public Sector Compensation Transparency Act

For Public Sector Bodies with No Statement of Remuneration to Disclose

This form may be used to report under section 4 of the Act that no disclosure is required for the year.

- 4 If a public sector body has no employees whose total compensation and severance for the previous year is greater than the threshold and no members who were paid compensation or severance, who became entitled to severance or to or in respect of whom non-monetary benefits were provided during the previous year,
- a) the public sector body is not required to make a disclosure under section 3 in respect of that year, and*
 - b) the public sector body shall so advise the public and the Minister in the form and manner determined by the Minister.*

Name of Public Sector Body: Alberta Research and Innovation Advisory Committee (ARIAC)

To the best of my knowledge and belief,

- there were no employees of the above public sector body who earned more than $141,183 in compensation and severance in 2022, and
- there were no members of the above public sector body who received any amount of compensation or severance, became entitled to severance, or received non-monetary benefits in 2022.
