

Youth Advisory Task Force

Are you a youth or young adult aged 14-24, who has experience with Alberta's Child Intervention System?

Children and Family Services' Youth Advisory Task Force is looking for youth and young adults who want to help improve the Child Intervention system and bring about positive change.

What do we do?

- Provide perspective, insight, and feedback on programs, practices, policies, and services within Children and Family Services.
- The Task Force promotes change and raises awareness related to youth and young adults in and transitioning from government care.

Who can join?

- youth and young adults between 14 years of age and their 24th birthday
- those with lived experience with Alberta Children and Family Services
- those who are passionate about advocacy, leadership and improving the system

What's involved?

- Monthly virtual meetings
- 2 in-person gatherings per year (travel, meals and accommodations are covered)
- Serve a 1-year term with the option to extend
- Opportunity to share your voice and give feedback on policies and programs

What you'll gain

- Volunteer experience to enhance your resume
- Training in leadership, advocacy and civic engagement
- Build lasting connections with like-minded peers
- Help improve the system and advocate for the needs of children, youth and young adults receiving services

Why join us?

- Make an impact in your community and beyond
- Build skills for your future career or education
- Be a part of something bigger - your voice can help shape policies and decisions that affect youth and young adults
