

Linda Coady

Member, Alberta's Climate Change Advisory Panel

Linda Coady is a subject matter expert on corporate sustainability, with a track record of helping to solve issues with complex social, environmental and economic interdependencies. She is Chief Sustainability Officer for Enbridge, with responsibility for the company's social and environmental performance at an enterprise-wide level.

Prior to joining Enbridge in 2013, she was Vice-President of Sustainability for the Vancouver 2010 Olympics. She is also a former Vice-President of World Wildlife Fund Canada (WWF-Canada), and a former Vice-President of Weyerhaeuser Canada.

Ms. Coady's work on sustainable development has been recognized with awards from Canadian Business for Social Responsibility, the Ecological Society of America, the YWCA, and the Globe Foundation for Business and Environment. From 2010-2012 she was a Distinguished Fellow at the Liu Institute for Global Issues at the University of British Columbia (UBC). She has consulted locally and globally on sustainability issues in the forestry, mining, shipping and sport industries, as well as in the environmental conservation sector.
