

S131 Online Module 13: Air Tanker Operations (CIFFC)

Overview/Description

After completing this course, you will be able to:

- Identify the two types of air tankers used in Alberta.
- Describe the role of air tankers in wildland fire suppression.
- List the hazards to ground crews associated with air tanker operations.
- Describe safety procedures to be followed if accidentally caught in drop zone.

Target Audience

- Forestry Division employees
- Fire Departments
- Forest Industry - Woodlands

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites.

Registration

- Forestry Division employees can register following instructions on the WF launch page.
- Fire departments & Forest Industry – Woodlands, contact the HTC Online Help Desk for registration information