

Alberta Advantage Immigration Program (AAIP)

Rural Renewal Stream (RRS) Fact Sheet

What is the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program?

The Alberta Advantage Immigration Program (AAIP) is an economic immigration program that nominates individuals for permanent residence in Alberta. The AAIP has different streams for both foreign nationals who are living and working in Alberta as well as entrepreneurs wanting to establish or purchase a business in Alberta. AAIP nominees must have the skills and abilities to fill labour shortages or contribute to the economy through the ownership and operation of an Alberta business.

Both the Government of Alberta and the federal government administer the program. If an individual is nominated through the AAIP, they may apply for permanent residence status together with their spouse or common-law partner and dependent children. Program nominees must also meet medical, criminal and security federal checks to be eligible for permanent residency.

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) makes the final decisions on all permanent residence applications.

What makes the Rural Renewal Stream unique is that it is “community driven”. To ensure success in your community, economic development groups, employers and community organizations will work together to achieve community designation to meet the labour force and economic needs of the community.

How the Rural Renewal Stream Works

Rural Alberta communities express interest in the Rural Renewal Stream (communities within an economic region can partner to apply).

Communities that meet the mandatory criteria submit their application for community designation.

The community partnership works to attract and recruit foreign nationals.

Employer provides a job offer to the successful foreign national and the community partnership ensures the candidate meets the streams criteria. An endorsement letter is provided to the foreign national.

Endorsed foreign national submits application to the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program (AAIP).

AAIP issues nomination for Permanent Residency.

Foreign national applies to Immigration Refugees and Citizenship Canada for Permanent Residency.

Designated Community supports newcomers to settle permanently and be successful in the community.

Mandatory Requirements for Community Designation
