

Child and Youth Care Worker

APS Minimum Recruitment Standards

Subsidiary Agreement: 006

Effective Date: February 13, 2023

Stream Definition:

A Child and Youth Care Worker primarily works with children and youth in both secure and open residential care centres. For the most part, this work is performed within a multi-disciplinary team, and is focused on ensuring the treatment or care plan developed by the team for each child/youth is followed. Work in this stream is often focused on hands-on, direct services and support in a treatment milieu. This stream also includes the supervision of the front-line function, as well as facilitating reintegration into homes and communities. The goal is to maintain or re-establish the family unit.
