

Individual Support

APS Minimum Recruitment Standards

Subsidiary Agreement:	009
Effective Date:	December, 2021
Stream Definition:	This work is primarily involved in providing personal support, care and treatments to individuals residing within a facility in a variety of daily living situations aimed at enhancing quality of life. This may include providing basic health care and treatments as per medical instructions and plans. Incumbents are involved in assisting with and facilitating the assessment, implementation and evaluation of an individual's customized plans, goals, and skill development. This work typically includes meeting individuals' hygiene and nutritional needs, mobility requirements, and either directly administering or assisting with health treatments. It also includes supporting an individual in their personal, leisure and recreational, social, volunteer and work activities. Positions have direct contact with families/guardians and, in some cases, stakeholders in the community.
