Public Information and Warning: Sexual Offender released

In the interest of public safety, the Edmonton Police Service is issuing the following warning: Alfred David White, 39, is a convicted child sex offender, and the Edmonton Police Service has reasonable grounds to believe he will commit another sexual offence against someone while in the community.

In 2018, White committed sexual offences against children in Calgary. He was subsequently arrested and convicted in 2020, receiving a two-year custodial sentence. While on judicial interim release, White committed additional offences in Calgary involving the possession of child pornography between 2019 and 2020. He was convicted of these offences in 2021 and received an additional 15-month consecutive sentence. Following his statutory release in 2022, White reoffended in 2023 by accessing and uploading child pornography. He was arrested and in early January 2024 was convicted of possessing child pornography and breaching a prohibition order and was sentenced to 27 months incarceration.

Upon White's release later this week he will reside in Edmonton. Given White's criminal history and his high risk of reoffending, the Edmonton Police Service has sought and obtained court-imposed conditions. Upon his release, White will be subject to numerous conditions including the following:

- You will not attend within 100 meters of a public park, public swimming area, daycare, school ground, playground, recreational centers, community centers, youth shelters, public libraries, or any other area where persons under the age of 16 are present or can reasonably be expected to be present unless you have received written approval from your Supervisor or designate.
- You shall not attend areas or specific locations or associate with specific individuals that your Supervisor has given you instructions to avoid.
- You shall have no contact, direct or indirect, with the victims of your index offence.

- You must live at a residence approved by the Alberta Court of Justice or your Supervisor, and you must not change that address until you have received written approval from your Supervisor.
- You shall abide by a curfew by being in your approved residence daily between the hours of 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless a varied time is approved in writing by your Supervisor.

White's compliance with these conditions will be monitored and managed by the Behavioural Assessment Unit of the Edmonton Police Service.

Anyone with any information about White's behavior/conduct while in the community can contact the EPS at 780-423-4567.

The Edmonton Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in public interest to inform members of the community.
