

Release of High-Risk Offender – Brian Keith DAVEY

In the interest of public safety, the Calgary Police Service is issuing the following public information and warning in regards to the release of a high risk offender.

Brian Keith DAVEY, 66, was released to the Calgary community, today, Wednesday, Oct. 19, 2022, after serving a two-year sentence for invitation to sexual touching of a minor.

DAVEY has three previous convictions each for sexual interference of a minor and invitation to sexual touching that have resulted in custodial sentences. DAVEY also has previous convictions for committing gross indecency and indecent acts. The majority of his crimes have occurred in the Calgary area and targeted children.

DAVEY is currently subject to a three-year Probation Order and will be closely monitored by the Calgary Police Service High Risk Offender Program.

He is described as a white male, 5'9" tall, 260 pounds, with grey hair and blue eyes. A photo of DAVEY is available on The City of Calgary Newsroom.

The Calgary Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation and consideration of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform the members of the community of the release of DAVEY.

Members of the public are advised that the intent of the process is to enable members of the public to take suitable precautionary measures and not to embark on any form of vigilante action.

NOTE: This information is released under the authority of section 32 the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, S.A. 1994 c.F - 18.5.

The Calgary Police Service High Risk Offender Program (HROP) monitors offenders who have been released by the courts to the Calgary community and who have been determined to have a high-risk to reoffend. With our law enforcement partners, officers in HROP assess an offender's risk factors and use a number of tactics to ensure they are abiding by court-imposed conditions to manage their risk to the community.
