

Release of High-Risk Offender – Cyril Douglas APETAGON
Calgary, AB, 29 April 2022

In the interest of public safety, the Calgary Police Service is issuing the following public information and warning regarding the release of an inmate on completion of his sentence.

Cyril Douglas APETAGON, 39, was released to the Calgary area late last week after serving a 24-month sentence for trespass by night and breaching court orders.

Previous convictions include breaking and entering to commit sexual assault, accessing child pornography, sexual assault, aggravated assault, and taking a motor vehicle without consent. APETAGON also has a history of sexually assaulting underage males and females who are both known and unknown to him.

APETAGON will now be closely monitored by the Calgary Police Service High Risk Offender Program.

He is described as 5'10" tall, 175 lbs., with a medium build, black hair and brown eyes.

The Calgary Police Service is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation and consideration of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is clearly in the public interest to inform members of the community of the release of APETAGON.

Members of the public are advised that the intent of the process is to enable them to take suitable precautionary measures and not to embark on any form of vigilante action.

NOTE: This information is released under the authority of section 32 the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, S.A. 1994 c.F – 18.5.
