Consent Order

Before you Begin:

- You must have a court action in the Court of King's Bench to use these forms. If you do not, talk to us about how to start that.
- If you are doing a Variation Order, you will need a copy of the old order that you want to change.
- The Consent Order form is used when you and the other party have agreed on the terms that you want in your order. Fill in the blank clauses have been included for custody, access, child support and spousal support. However, you can add other clauses to suit your agreement.

Warning!

- If you are including a reduction of arrears of support, and the recipient of support has ever been on Income Assistance, you may not be able to do a Consent Order. Talk to Maintenance Enforcement to see if there are any subrogated arrears. If there are, you make an application in court, and serve the Director of Maintenance Enforcement with your application.
- If you are wanting to change ongoing support and the recipient of support is on Income Assistance now, you may not be able to do a Consent Order. Make an application in court and serve the Director of Maintenance Enforcement.

Tips:

Write the clauses in complete sentences.

Wrong	Joint custody. Visit on weekends.
Right	The applicant and the respondent shall have joint custody of the children. The applicant shall have access to the children on weekends.

Write the clauses as if it is the judge talking, not as if you are talking.

Wrong	I will cover the kids with my dental plan.
Right	The applicant will provide dental insurance for the children through her employment.

If you are not sure how to write your Order, look at your old court orders, or talk to a lawyer.

You may have to re-type the Consent Order form to suit your agreement.

Fill in the Consent Order

- Your court file number will be the same as your other King's Bench court documents.
- Fill in the names of the parties, the same as on your other King's Bench court documents.
- Fill in the clauses in a way that shows your agreement.

Have the Consent Order signed and witnessed

- Each of you must sign the Order in front of a witness. You can use the same witness.
- The witness or witnesses must complete and sign the Affidavit of Execution before a Commissioner for Oaths.

Fill in the Ex Parte Form

- Fill in the complete names of the parties and the date that you will be bringing this to court.
- If your court file is in Edmonton, there are special instructions at the end of this document.

Have the Consent Order signed by a Judge:

- If your court file is in Edmonton, there are special instructions at the end of this document.
- Talk to the King's Bench clerks or Family Justice Services staff to find out when "Morning Chambers" is held in your court.
- Go to court for Morning Chambers. At the beginning of the morning, before starting the scheduled matters, the judge will ask "Any Ex Parte applications or consent orders?" At that point, you will see people going to the front of the courtroom and speaking to the judge about their applications and orders. Take your turn and go to the front.
- Tell the judge you have a consent order, and hand the Order and the Ex Parte Form to the clerk to give to the judge. Answer any questions the judge may have.
- The judge will hand the signed order back to the clerk who will give it to you.

File the Order

- Make two copies of the signed order.
- Bring the original and the two copies to the King's Bench clerk's counter. They will keep the original and give you one certified and one filed copy back. Give the filed copy to the other party.

Tip:

If your order included child or spousal support, send a copy to Maintenance Enforcement.

Special Instructions for Edmonton

In Edmonton, Consent Orders are usually done as “Desk Orders” rather than in open court. Also, you must fill in a Child Support Data Sheet if the order deals with child support.

Go to the Resolution Services office, and the staff there can give you further information about how to complete your Consent Order.
