Instructions

Changing Access

Before you Begin:

- You must have a divorce file in the Court of King's Bench to use this form. If you do not, talk to us about how to start.
- See our booklet, "Making a Court Application in the Court of King's Bench (With an Application Form)" for more information about how to prepare, file and serve court forms and how to present your case in court.
- Be prepared to take several days or weeks to gather up the information that you need, and several hours to fill in your paperwork properly. This is not something you can dash off in a few minutes. If you have properly prepared, you will have a better chance of success. You only have one chance to make your application!

Gather up the documents you will need to prove your case

- You will need a copy of the Order that you want to change.
- Gather up your financial documents and fill in your Disclosure Statement before you start filling in these forms. See the package "Providing Financial Disclosure" for more information. You must file complete financial disclosure at the same time as you file your application.

There may be other documents that you should attach to your court forms. For example:

- To support your request to change access, think about which documents the judge will want to see. Some of these might be relevant:
 - School report cards
 - Letters from the child's doctor, teacher or counsellor
 - Copies of e mails showing attempts to organize access
 - Your work schedule, if access must be scheduled around that
 - The children's extracurricular activity schedule

Fill in the Application form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the "Making a Court Application" booklet.

Fill in the Affidavit form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the "Making a Court Application" booklet.
- This form has been prepared with the information that the court is likely to want to see. You can, if you wish, change the content of the form to set out the information in a way that you think is best. If you type up your own Affidavit, it cannot be longer than 5 pages (or 8 pages if you are setting your matter for an afternoon Special).

- All of the documents that you want the judge to see must be written about in the Affidavit (and your Disclosure Statement, if you have filled one in) and attached as exhibits to the Affidavit (or attachments to your Disclosure Statement).
- You cannot have more than 40 pages of exhibits to your Affidavit, unless you get permission from a judge. If you must have more than 40 pages, ask us how to apply for permission.

After the other party has been served, fill in the Affidavit of Service form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the “Making a Court Application” booklet.

If you are objecting to a decision of the Child Support Recalculation Program, send a copy of your application to them.
