

2026 Host Profile for City of Airdrie

City of Airdrie

Community

Airdrie is a vibrant, fast-growing city just north of Calgary, Alberta, perfect for launching your career while enjoying an exceptional quality of life. Our extensive pathway network makes getting around by bike easy, connecting you to parks, shops, and amenities. Airdrie Transit offers reliable connections within the city and to Calgary. Explore great local restaurants, shops, and breweries, plus recreation facilities, cultural venues, and parks. With a welcoming community vibe and the Rockies nearby for weekend getaways, Airdrie is an ideal place to start your professional journey.

Municipal Projects

The intern will contribute to Airdrie's Municipal Development Plan update, helping shape the long-term growth strategy for one of Canada's fastest-growing cities. They'll also develop urban design guidelines that will define the visual character and built form of new neighbourhoods, creating lasting impact on community identity and livability.

Workplace

"Teams work together to get things done and despite the rapid growth, Airdrie has maintained a small-town feel. It's cool to see how our work directly impacts the community's quality of life."

Discover the City of Airdrie on Instagram:

<https://www.instagram.com/cityofairdrie/>

Public transportation is available.

The successful candidate MUST have a:

- Clear Police Information Check

Designation

The intern will be mentored by RPP-designated professionals who provide guidance on competency development, logbook documentation, and exam preparation. The City provides work assignments that align with CIP competency areas, comprehensive professional development support, dedicated work time for Professional Practice and Ethics (PPE) preparation, and coverage of designation costs.

Salary

The starting annual salary range for an intern at (the) City of Airdrie is between $60,000-$70,000. Additional education and experience may also be considered.