

2026 Host Profile for City of Lloydminster

City of Lloydminster

Community

The City of Lloydminster is Canada's only truly bi-provincial city, uniquely situated on the border of Alberta and Saskatchewan. With a population of approximately 32,000 residents and a growth projection of 2.2%, the City of Lloydminster is a young, vibrant and developing municipality. As of the end of November 2025, Planning Services approved development with an estimated construction value of approximately 87 million dollars.

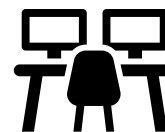

Municipal Projects

The City prides itself on offering a diverse range of experience including but not limited to supporting the ongoing review of the Municipal Development Plan

(MDP) and Land Use Bylaw (LUB), processing applications, road closures, and bylaw amendments, supporting policy writing and research, community consultation, intermunicipal relations, report writing, and creation of the Area Structure Plan (ASP).

Workplace

"Interning here offers unmatched early career experience. Expect meaningful work, complex challenges, and a supportive team that helps you grow as a young professional and planner."
Olivia Lay, Planner (Former Land Use Planning Intern, 2024)

Watch this video from Discover Lloydminster to see how the "Rediscover Home" campaign inspires locals to explore leisure and adventure opportunities right in their own backyard. It's a vibrant showcase of safe, local travel and community pride. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2vG-Mp-oH6U>

Public transportation is not available.

The successful candidate MUST have a:

- Driver's licence
- Clear driver's abstract
- Clear Police Information Check

Designation

We are excited to offer sponsorship and mentoring from an RPP-designated Planner as your direct report. We are also here to support you in gaining hands-on experience with municipal development plans, land use bylaws, subdivision approval and construction inspections including, but not limited to, underground and surface inspections.

Salary

The starting annual salary range for an intern at the City of Lloydminster is $65,436, accompanied by a competitive benefits package. Additional education and experience may also be considered.