Community

The County of Grande Prairie blends affordability, amenities, and adventure in Alberta's Peace Country. Enjoy a welcoming community, modern rentals from $1,000, and a lifestyle rich in choice - city convenience or rural charm. Explore trails, ride ATVs, or boats, visit festivals, rodeos, and dinosaur sites, or relax at golf courses and campgrounds. Discover fitness activities at Eastlink Centre, culture at museums, vibrant arts, shopping, dining, and easy travel. More than a place to live, it's a place to thrive.

Municipal Projects

The County will undergo a significant review of all bylaws and policies in 2026/27. New categorization and classification systems will be explored and regular presentations to Council will be required. The County, with regional partners, is establishing a new regional economic development agency, Invest Northwest. The intern will assist in providing start-up support to the agency.

Workplace

"Working at the County of Grande Prairie has been educational, offering diverse opportunities to grow skills, advance my career, and deepen my understanding of local government through its unique mix of hamlets, urban, and rural development."
