Alberta RCMP warn public of high-risk offender

Fort Saskatchewan, Alta. – In the interest of public safety, Alberta RCMP are issuing the following information and warning regarding Dwain Law (63), convicted sex offender, who has recently relocated to Fort Saskatchewan. He has additional previous convictions for sexual assault, assault, arson, and property offences. All of his criminal convictions are from British Columbia.

Law, who has relocated to Fort Saskatchewan, is described as:

- 180 cm (5'11") tall;
- 107 kgs (236 lbs) in weight;
- bald; and
- blue eyes.

Law is being monitored while in community and is subject to numerous conditions including not to attend places where children are likely to congregate (schools, parks and playgrounds, swimming pools, and recreational centres) unless accompanied by an approved adult, not to be in the presence of female children under the age of 18 unless accompanied by another adult, report relationships with females, and not to consume alcohol or drugs.

The Alberta RCMP is issuing this information and warning after careful deliberation and consideration of all related issues, including privacy concerns, in the belief that it is in the public interest to inform the members of the community of Law's relocation. The RCMP believes that there is a risk of significant harm to the health and safety of the public.

The intent of this process is to enable members of the public to take suitable precautionary measures and not to embark on any form of vigilante action. Anyone believing that a crime has been or is about to be committed is encouraged to call police. If the matter is felt to be of an urgent nature, please call 911 to report the location and circumstances.

This media release along with a photo of Dwain Law is available on the Government of Alberta's High Risk Offender Website (<https://www.alberta.ca/high-risk-offenders-other-areas.aspx>). This information is released under Section 37 of the Access to Information Act, SA 2024, c A-1.4.
