Details

The Consumer Investigations Unit is warning Albertans about the growing use of fake websites for businesses that claim to be Alberta based or to operate in Alberta.

Albertans, and those seeking business, lending, or employment opportunities in Alberta, are reminded that personal and business information can be used in identity theft and fraud. Consumers, businesses, and job seekers should exercise caution, conduct research, and verify the legitimacy of a business before disclosing any personal or sensitive information over the internet or making any payments.
